Please note:

Every attempt is made to accommodate a student's first choice; however, in the event that this is not possible or if a course does not run due to lack of numbers, we would contact the student to discuss an alternative subject. Parents will receive confirmation of their child's subject choices towards the end of the spring term.

Universities including Oxbridge, now only make offers to students based on their three best A levels. However, we are happy for students to start on four A levels with an understanding that they transition to three A levels during the autumn term of the lower sixth (the exception to this may be Further Maths). We believe this allows the students to make an informed decision about their A level subjects whilst also maximising their opportunity to get the best grades possible.
